Congratulations! National Certificate Tobacco Treatment Practice (NCTTP)

Sue Kahler received National Certificate Tobacco Treatment Practice (NCTTP). This national certificate was created to standardize and unify tobacco treatment competencies, knowledge, and skills on a national level. The NCTTP provides unified recognition that you have successfully completed a rigorous training program and obtained a significant amount of experience in the field.

BIG Tobacco Exposed - College Graphic Design Project Takes Flight

Recently Bismarck Burleigh Public Health (BBPH) Tobacco Prevention and Control Department and Tobacco Free North Dakota (TFND) partnered with Bismarck State College (BSC) Graphic Design Program to engage college students in tobacco prevention efforts. Students used Big Tobacco's court mandated corrective statements as themes for poster and meme designs to be later used on BBPH, TFND, and ND Quits social media as well we Off the Wall Advertisement throughout Bismarck. Below are the poster submissions from participating students:

Poster Design Winner!

Meme Design Winner!

University of Mary Health Pro students judged poster submissions and selected the winner. This poster will be hung up at United Tribes Technical College (UTTC), U of Mary, and BSC during Kick Butts Day. April first through May 31st the winning poster design will be placed in Off the Wall Indoor Advertisements in local Restaurants through Bismarck. We are excited to have had the opportunity to partner with TFND, BSC Graphic Design program, University of Mary and UTTC.
